ORAL JUDGEMENT

After the arguments the learned counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner wants to approach the appellate committee on the limited question of considering certain documents which were already produced by the petitioner which have bearing on the question of working out the amount payable by the petitioner. It is made clear that the decision of the appellate committee as regards the irregularities committed by the petitioner has become final. The learned counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw this petition for the purpose of filing review application. Permission is granted. If such an application is made by the petitioner, it will be for the appellate committee to consider the same and take its own decision in accordance with law. Rule is discharged with no order as to costs.
